On Memorial Day, a few weeks ago, we remembered fallen heroes. In a few short weeks we have gone from Memorial Day to Freedom Day. But even now, as July 4th is upon us, the nightly news keeps us painfully aware of our fallen heroes.

Communion Meditations: FROM MEMORIAL TO FREEDOM DAY

On Memorial Day, the past and present come together and become one; at Communion, the past and present and future come together and become a door into eternity. We rub shoulders with the apostles, saints, martyrs, and reformers of all ages; we are in the company of the angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, and we worship with all our loved ones who have gone before us, for this ...

Do this in remembrance of me...

The communion memorial has lasted for over 2000 years, and will continue to be practiced in eternity. It's profound. There is something deeply spiritual that occurs when we participate in the Lord's Supper with the right spirit.
